Upon successful completion of the required screening, and subject to any fraud or risk holds imposed by us, You will be offered the following settlement timeline:

We will initiate the transfer of the portion of Accommodation Fees due to You to Your bank account in most cases within 1-2 days after the scheduled check-in date for the Guest at Your Property. However, with respect to any deposit amounts due to You, we will initiate transfer in most cases within 1-2 business days after authorization from the Display Affiliate, in its sole discretion.

If You are enrolled in any automatic refund damage deposit program, You authorize us or our affiliates to initiate a refund of such damage deposit on Your behalf, or to instruct the release of damage deposit funds to You upon receipt of a valid claim, in accordance with the damage deposit program terms.

The time it takes for You to receive Payments after they have been initiated may vary. In addition, for risk reasons, Your initial disbursement may be delayed by up to 30 days and, for fraud reasons, Your disbursement could be indefinitely delayed or cancelled. However, in all cases we reserve the right to provide You payment amounts more quickly, for instance, in advance of Guest check-in, at our discretion.

5.11 Disputes; Arbitration.

We are committed to customer satisfaction, so if you have a problem or dispute, we will try to resolve your concerns. But if we are unsuccessful, you may pursue claims as explained in this section.

You agree to first give Us an opportunity to resolve any disputes or claims relating in any way to this Agreement, any dealings with Our customer service agents, any services or products provided, any representations made by us ("Claims") by contacting Us. If We are not able to resolve your Claims within 60 days, you may seek relief through arbitration or in small claims court, as set forth below.

You acknowledge and agree that any and all Claims will be resolved by binding arbitration, rather than in court, except that: (i) you may assert Claims on an individual basis in small claims court or tribunal if they qualify; and (ii) either party may seek injunctive or other urgent equitable relief in a court of competent jurisdiction to prevent the actual or threatened infringement, misappropriation, or breach of a party's intellectual property rights (including, without limitation, copyright or trade marks), or in other exigent circumstances (such as any actual or threatened crime or cyber-attack). This includes any Claims you assert against us, our subsidiaries, travel suppliers or any companies offering products or services through us (which are beneficiaries of this arbitration agreement). This also includes any Claims that arose before you accepted these Terms of Use, regardless of whether prior versions of the Terms of Use required arbitration.

There is no judge or jury in arbitration, and court review of an arbitration award is limited. However, an arbitrator can award on an individual basis the same damages and relief as a court (including statutory damages, attorneys' fees and costs), and must follow and enforce these Terms of Use as a court would.

The obligation to resolve a Claim by binding arbitration will not apply if you provide us with written notice (including by email) that you reject the arbitration provisions of these Terms of Use within thirty (30) days following the date you first accept these provisions. If you don't provide us with such notice within the thirty (30) day period, you will be deemed to have waived in full (and without modification) your right to resolve any Claim or to seek any other relief by commencing proceedings in a court (except as set out in paragraphs (i) and (ii) above).

Arbitrations will be conducted by the Australian Centre for International Commercial Arbitration (ACICA) under its rules, as adopted or amended from time to time. The seat of arbitration shall be Sydney (or, if you notify us in writing, your nearest state or territory capital city of Australia). The language of the arbitration shall be English. Payment of all filing, administration and arbitrator fees will be governed by the ACICA's rules, except as provided in this section. If your total Claims seek less than $75,000, we will reimburse you for filing fees you pay to the ACICA and will pay arbitrator's fees unless the arbitrator finds that either the substance of your Claim or the relief sought was frivolous or was brought for an improper purpose. We will not seek, and hereby waive, all rights we may have under applicable law to recover attorneys' fees and expenses unless the arbitrator finds that either the substance of your Claim or the relief sought was frivolous or was brought for an improper purpose.

You may choose to have an arbitration conducted by telephone, based on written submissions, or in person in the state where you live or at another mutually agreed location.

To begin an arbitration proceeding, you must send a letter requesting arbitration and describing your Claims to "Vrbo Legal: Arbitration Claim Manager," at Level 17, 1 Martin Place, Sydney NSW 2000 Australia. If we request arbitration against you, we will give you notice at the email address or street address you have provided. The ACICA's rules and filing instructions are available at <https://acica.org.au/> or by calling +61 (0) 2 9223 1099.

Any and all proceedings to resolve Claims will be conducted only on an individual basis and not in a class, consolidated or representative action. If for any reason a Claim proceeds in court rather than in arbitration we each waive any right to a jury trial. The Commercial Arbitration Act 2010 (NSW) applies to this agreement. An arbitration decision may be confirmed by any court of competent jurisdiction.
