VRBO GUEST TERMS OF SERVICE

Last revised: 03-26-2026

Hello and welcome! We are glad that you are taking the time to read these terms of service (the “Terms”).

These Terms are important as they are a binding contract between you and us and together with your booking confirmation email (the “Booking Confirmation”), set out the legal terms on which Travel Services are made available to you through our Service. They also cover any interactions or communications you have through our Service.

Your use of our Service (including any of the content or other services made available through it) is subject to these Terms and it is a condition of using our Service that you accept these Terms.

To book a Travel Service, you must also accept these Terms. If you do not accept these Terms, then please do not use our Service or book a Travel Service.

We may make changes to these Terms by updating them at any time and your continued use of our Service after any changes come into effect will constitute your acceptance of the updated Terms.

Any existing bookings will continue to be governed by the Terms that applied to your booking when the booking was made.

We recommend that you save or print a copy of these Terms when you make a booking.

Section 15 (Disputes and arbitration, contact us and complaints) below contains an arbitration agreement and class action waiver that apply to all claims brought against us in the United States. Please read them carefully.

In these Terms:

“we”, “us” or “our” refer to HomeAway.com Inc., having its office at 11920 Alterra Pkwy, Austin, TX 78758, USA, and company registration number 3909505, which provides our Service and is the company that contracts with you under these Terms

“Content” refers to all text, descriptions, reviews, photographs, images, videos, software, and other content submitted to our Service

“our Group of Companies” refers to us, Expedia, Inc., and each of our respective subsidiaries and corporate affiliates

“our Service” refers to our websites, apps and services, including user support, that assist you in researching, planning, and booking a Travel Service

“Travel Provider” refers to the property owner, manager, and/or other travel supplier making available the Travel Services to you through our Service and anyone else who acts on behalf of such parties

“Travel Service” refers to the travel services made available to you by the relevant Travel Provider(s) through our Service, such as stays at a property, and

“you” or “Guest” refers to you, the traveler, or anyone using our Service or making a booking through our Service.

Please read these Terms carefully.

Section 1 Rules and Restrictions

As well as these Terms, other terms and conditions provided by Travel Providers (such as separate or additional terms imposed by the Travel Provider, including any house rules, cancellation policies or rental agreements) also apply to your booking (“Rules and Restrictions”). The relevant Rules and Restrictions are provided to you before you make a booking.

To make a booking, you must accept the Rules and Restrictions of the Travel Provider that you select (such as payment of due amounts, cancellation policies, refundability, availability restrictions and use of services, etc.).

If you violate a Travel Provider's Rules and Restrictions, your booking may be canceled and you may be denied access to the relevant Travel Service. You may also lose any money paid for such booking, depending on the Travel Provider's Rules and Restrictions.

Rental agreements are concluded only between a Guest and a Travel Provider. We are not a party to any such agreements. Any such agreement:

- will apply to your booking of a property
- will govern your right to occupy and use such property, and
- may limit or exclude a Travel Provider's liability.

You are therefore advised to read any such rental agreement before booking a property.

We are not obliged to mediate between a Guest and a Travel Provider in any dispute arising between them.

You acknowledge and agree that:

- you and the Travel Provider are responsible for performing the obligations of any rental agreements between each other
- we are not, and do not become, a party to any contractual relationship between a Guest and a Travel Provider
- Travel Providers are not our service providers, and
- Travel Providers are responsible for complying with all laws, rules and regulations applicable to the listing and rental of their property and to the conduct of their rental property business.

Section 2 Using our Service

Verification and security

While we:

- request Travel Providers to provide accurate and complete information, and
- conduct certain vetting processes for Travel Providers (including, as may be required by law), we are not responsible for the accuracy of any information regarding the purported identity of a Travel Provider or Guest.

We encourage Guests and Travel Providers to communicate directly with each other through the services available on our Service (such as secure messaging). However, even this does not assure you of the identity of the person with whom you are communicating. Please raise any concerns to us immediately.

 - you are responsible for paying any amounts due, for making any change/cancellation requests and for all other matters relating to the booking
- you are responsible for, and will abide by, all laws, rules and regulations applicable to:
 - your use of our Service, and
 - any transaction that you enter into either through our Service or in connection with your use of our Service, and
- you will be respectful of any property that you book through our Service (as well as the property's neighbors and the general neighborhood), and refrain from any disruptive behaviors and actions.

You also agree not to:

- make any false or fraudulent booking

Access

We may, acting reasonably, deny anyone access to our Service (or any other sites, apps, tools and services you have access to under your Expedia Group Account, as defined below) at any time for any valid reason. We may also make improvements and changes to our Service at any time.

Account

To make use of all the features available on our Service you will need to create an account with us (or create an Expedia Group Account, as defined below), and sign into it.

To create an account, you must be at least 18 years of age and follow the account creation instructions provided through our Service.

If you have an account with us, you must:

- safeguard your account information
- be responsible for any use of your account by you or others (even those transactions that you did not intend to be performed)

- provide us with all necessary information, to the extent required for us to comply with our legal obligations.

The account you create on our Service also allows you to access other sites, apps, tools and services offered by members of our Group of Companies (including Expedia and Hotels.com) using the same account credentials, in addition to our Service (an “Expedia Group Account”). Please note that when using your Expedia Group Account, the relevant terms of service displayed on the sites, apps, tools and services that you are using will govern your use of them.

For information on how to delete your account, sign into your account on our Service and follow the applicable account deletion process or visit our Help Center. For further information about your privacy rights (such as deletion or access), please see our Privacy Statement.

Information sharing

Even though we:

- are not a party to any rental agreement between you and a Travel Provider, and
- to the maximum extent permitted by law, assume no liability for legal or regulatory compliance relating to any property listed on our Service, there may be circumstances where we are nevertheless obligated to provide information relating to any property listing, booking, Guest or Travel Provider to comply with legal obligations, or with governmental or regulatory bodies investigations, litigation or administrative proceedings. By using our Service, you consent to the sharing of your information with government or regulatory bodies as required.

Tax regulations may also require us to collect appropriate tax information from Guests.

Guests are responsible for ensuring that all information provided is accurate, complete and kept up to date.

How we order your search results

There are many travel options available through our Service and we want to make your search results as relevant as possible. At the search results page you will see our default sort order, however you can select how to sort your results and also use filter options to prioritize results based on your chosen preferences, such as price, guest review score, or other criteria. You can learn more on how we order search results by visiting our How our sort order works page.

Within your search results we also sometimes display travel options that are paid-for commercial listings from our Travel Providers. Such travel options are clearly labelled for your information as “Ad” or similar equivalent labelling, to differentiate them from other travel options.

Redirection and third-party booking services

If you are redirected from our Service to a third-party booking service to make a travel booking, please bear in mind that any bookings made through such a booking service will be with the third-party and not with us. We are not responsible for bookings made through third-party booking services and we have no liability to you in respect of such a booking. The terms and conditions of the third-party service provider will set out what rights you have against them and will explain their liability to you.

Section 3 Confirming a booking

Your Booking Confirmation(s) includes the essential elements of your booking, such as the description of the Travel Service(s) booked and the price.

We, or the Travel Provider, will send your Booking Confirmation(s) and any relevant travel documents to the email address you provide when you book. If you do not receive your Booking Confirmation within 24 hours of making your booking, please contact us via our Help Center.

In accordance with your communication preferences, we may also send your Booking Confirmation to you by SMS shortly after you have made the booking, as well as further booking updates. Message frequency may vary. Message and data rates may apply. You may decide to not receive such service SMS by simply opting out in the booking path. You may also opt out or stop receiving such transactional SMS anytime by replying ‘STOP’ in response to an SMS received. For additional help, text ‘HELP’ in response to an SMS received or contact us via our Help Center.

Section 4 Payment

Price

The price of the Travel Service(s) will be as displayed on our Service, except in cases of obvious error.

Prices for Travel Services are dynamic and can change at any time. Price changes will not affect bookings already accepted, except in cases of obvious error.

Payment processing

Payment services allowing Guests to pay for property bookings made through our Service are handled by:

- third-party payment providers, or
- in the case of some Travel Providers, by such Travel Providers' own third-party payment providers.

To help avoid you being the target of a dishonest fraud and potentially losing money, when using our Service, you must not book a property or pay a Travel Provider by means other than those offered on, or authorized through, our Service. Doing so constitutes a breach of these Terms.

Payment verification

You authorize our Group of Companies (or our Group of Companies' third-party payment providers, or the relevant Travel Provider's own third-party payment providers) (as applicable) to:

- verify your payment method by obtaining a pre-authorization, charging a nominal fee or through other verification means, and
- on verification, charge your payment method.

Fees charged by banks

Some banks and card issuers impose fees for international or cross-border transactions or for currency conversion. For example, if you make a booking in a currency different to the currency of your payment card, your card issuer may convert the booking amount to the currency of your payment card and charge you a conversion fee and/or a foreign transaction fee.

If you have any questions about these fees or the exchange rate applied to your booking, please contact your bank or card issuer. Our Group of Companies is not associated or responsible for any fees relating to varying exchange rates and card issuer fees.

Currency conversion

The currency in which you pay for a booking may be different from the currency used for price display on our Service. In any event, the currency and exact amount you will pay will be displayed clearly before you make a booking.

Display currencies on our Service are generally based on publicly available currency rates and are not guaranteed to be the best rate available.

Our overall compensation may be affected by the currency in which you pay.

Service Fee

We may charge a service fee to Guests (a "Service Fee") when booking a property through our Service, ordinarily calculated as a percentage of the total rental amount (which may include additional fees, taxes and damage deposits that might be charged by the Travel Provider). The Service Fee varies based on a variety of factors depending on the booking.

The Service Fee, plus applicable Transaction Taxes (defined below) on such Service Fee, will be displayed to you at the time of booking and before final check-out.

Taxes

Depending on the laws of the jurisdiction where the Guest and/or Travel Provider resides and/or where the property is located, the Service Fee (as defined above) may be subject to (or may include):

- Value Added Tax ("VAT"), Goods and Services Tax ("GST"), Japan Consumption Tax ("JCT"), sales tax, or any other equivalent indirect taxes that are applicable on the transaction ("Transaction Taxes"), or
- Occupancy Taxes (which refers to transient occupancy taxes, hotel taxes, lodging taxes, city taxes, room taxes or tourist taxes "Occupancy Taxes"), which we may be required to collect and remit to the relevant tax authorities.

Where required, we will provide you with an invoice or Booking Confirmation stating the amount of Transaction Taxes and/or Occupancy Taxes charged on such Service Fee.

If you are entitled to an exemption from Transaction Taxes or Occupancy Taxes on the Service Fee, you must provide us with the required documentation and support for such exemption so the correct tax treatment can be applied to the Service Fee.

The laws in jurisdictions may vary, however Transaction Taxes and/or Occupancy Taxes may also be required to be collected and remitted as a percentage of the total rental amount set by Travel Providers, a set amount per day, an amount based on the number of guests, or other variations.

Guests are liable for the payment of such applicable Transaction Taxes and/or Occupancy Taxes. In certain jurisdictions, where the law requires or taxing authorities otherwise authorize, we may directly collect and remit such applicable Transaction Taxes and/or Occupancy Taxes on behalf of Travel Providers.

In certain jurisdictions, only Guests above a specified age are liable for the payment of Occupancy Taxes. Other exceptions to the payment of Occupancy Taxes may apply. In such events the Guest may claim a refund from the relevant authority in charge of collecting the Occupancy Taxes or by submitting a request to us.

Alternative payment methods

We may work with providers of alternative payment methods (such as consumer finance companies), to provide our travelers with alternative payment methods.

Our Group of Companies does not endorse or recommend any alternative payment provider or their products or services. Our Group of Companies is not responsible for the content or the acts or omissions of any alternative payment provider. Your use of any such provider's payment method is at your own risk and will be governed by such provider's terms and policies.

Fraud

If a booking or account shows, in our reasonable view, signs of fraud, abuse, association with a government-sanctioned person or entity, or other suspicious activity, we may request additional information from you.

If we reasonably conclude that a booking or account is associated with fraud, abuse, a government-sanctioned person or entity or suspicious activity, we may:

- cancel any bookings associated with your name, email address or account
- close any associated accounts, and
- take legal action, including to seek to hold you liable for any loss.

Please contact us via our Help Center about the cancellation of a booking or closing of an account.

Section 5 Canceling or changing a booking

Cancellation or change by you

You do not have an automatic right to cancel or change a booking unless allowed by the relevant Travel Provider under their Rules and Restrictions (which are provided to you before you make a booking).

If you cancel a booking, to the maximum extent permitted by law:

- any amount refunded to you will be determined by the Travel Provider's cancellation policy
- our Service Fee (as defined in Section 4 (Payment) above) will only be refunded to you if your booking is eligible for a full refund under the Travel Provider's cancellation policy, and
- whether tax applies to any amounts retained by the Travel Provider or us depends on the applicable law in the taxing jurisdiction.

The Travel Provider's cancellation policy will be displayed to you before you make a booking through our Service. Please review this policy prior to booking, to ensure it is acceptable to you.

To cancel or change a booking, follow the instructions provided through our Service or contact us via our Help Center. Please note that changes to a booking are entirely at the Travel Provider's discretion and may result in additional amounts, fees or taxes.

Other cancellation or change

In rare instances and acting reasonably, we may need to cancel your booking to comply with our legal obligations. We will work with you, where possible, to rebook your stay at a comparable property.

The relevant Travel Provider may cancel your booking if full payment for the booking, or any applicable cancellation/change charge or fee relating to a booking is not received when due.

Refund

Timing to receive any refund will vary based on the payment method and applicable payment system used. Refunds are processed in the currency of the original payment and will be sent to the original form of payment.

Any currency conversion will be done by the relevant bank using their current exchange rate which may be different to the exchange rate used when you originally paid.

In addition, bank charges incurred by you during the booking process or as part of the refund process may be deducted by the bank from the refunded amount and in such cases will not be refunded by us.

Section 6 Travel Service specific terms

We are not:

- an organizer or retailer of travel packages, or

- in respect of distribution of Travel Products on any non-Vrbo branded sites, acting as a trader and/or facilitator for the purpose of linked travel arrangements, under Directive (EU) 2015/2302 (Directive on Package Travel and Linked Travel Arrangements).

A. Stays at a property

All bookings you make through our Service are made directly with the Travel Provider and your rental agreement will be only with the Travel Provider.

Please refer to Section 1 (Rules and Restrictions) above for more information regarding rental agreements with Travel Providers.

You can instantly book a property online through our Service, except where a Travel Provider opts to approve or decline a booking within 24 hours of a booking request.

B. Non-Vrbo travel service bookings

When you book any accommodation or other Travel Service distributed through our Service from Expedia or another Expedia Group brand (referred to as a “Non-Vrbo Travel Service”), the applicable terms presented to you during the booking process apply to your payment and booking of such Non-Vrbo Travel Service. In such an instance, your use of our Service remains subject to these Terms.

Section 7 International travel

Although most travel occurs without incident, travel to certain destinations may involve more risk than others. You must review any travel warnings/advice, etc. issued by the relevant governments before you book international travel. You should also monitor such travel warnings/advice during travel and before your return journey to help avoid and minimize any potential disruptions.

You may find travel advice and information on restrictions, entry requirements and the level of risk associated with travel to particular international destinations on the US Travel Advisory page. You should make sure you are aware of and comply with applicable advice, restrictions and entry requirements.

Health

You should check the recommended inoculations/vaccinations which may change at any time. You should consult your doctor before you depart. You are responsible for ensuring that you:

- meet all health entry requirements
- receive the relevant/required inoculations/vaccinations
- take all recommended medication, and
- follow all medical advice in relation to your travel.

Passport and visa

You must consult the relevant Embassy or Consulate for passport and visa information. Requirements may change so check for up-to-date information before booking and departure and allow sufficient time for all relevant applications.

Our Group of Companies is not liable if you are refused entry onto a flight or cruise ship (if applicable) or into any country, due to your conduct, including your failure to carry the correct and adequate travel documents required by any Travel Provider, authority or country (including countries you are transiting through). This includes all stops made by an aircraft or cruise ship (if applicable), even if you do not leave the aircraft, airport or cruise ship.

Some governments require airlines to provide personal information about all travelers on their aircraft. The data will be collected either at the airport when you check in or, in some circumstances, when you make your booking. If applicable, please contact the relevant airline you are traveling with if you have any questions about this.

Our Group of Companies does not represent or warrant that travel to international destinations is advisable or without risk and is not liable for damages or losses that may result from travel to such destinations.

- Request other personal information unrelated to a previous service issue.
- Request wire transfers or payment information through text message.

If you encounter any of the above when talking to someone purporting to be our representative, please end the conversation and report to us as soon as possible by contacting our Brand Fraud Prevention and Action Team at the following email address: brandfraudreport@expediagroup.com.

Section 15 Disputes and arbitration, contact us and complaints

Arbitration

Please read this Section carefully.

It requires that any and all claims be resolved by binding arbitration or in small claims court, and it prevents you from pursuing a class action or similar proceeding in any forum.

Arbitration is required if your country of residence enforces arbitration agreements, including without limitation, the United States.

If you are outside the United States but attempt to bring a claim in the United States, arbitration is required for determination of the threshold issue of whether this dispute resolution section applies to you, as well as all other threshold determinations, including residency, arbitrability, venue, and applicable law.

If your country of residence does not enforce arbitration agreements, the mandatory pre-arbitration dispute resolution and notification and prohibition on class actions or representative proceedings provided below still apply to the extent enforceable by law.

We are committed to Guest satisfaction and to resolving consumer disputes in a timely and efficient manner.

We have a two-step dispute resolution process that includes: (1) investigation and negotiation of your claim with our traveler support team; and, if necessary, (2) binding arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”) or, for arbitrations outside of the United States, an agreed upon arbitral tribunal.

You and we each retain the right to seek relief in small claims court as an alternative to arbitration.

Agreement to arbitrate (“Arbitration Agreement”)

You and we mutually agree that any disputes between us arising out of or relating in any way to our Service, these Terms, our Privacy Statement, any services or products provided by us or any of our subsidiaries, Travel Providers, or companies offering products or services through us, any dealings with our traveler support agents, or any representations made by us (“Claims”), will be resolved by binding arbitration, rather than in court except those resolved in small claims court.

This includes any Claims you assert against us, our subsidiaries, Travel Providers, or any companies offering products or services through us (which are beneficiaries of this Arbitration Agreement).

This Arbitration Agreement shall be binding upon, and shall include any claims brought by or against, any third parties, including but not limited to your spouses, heirs, third-party beneficiaries, and assigns, where their underlying claims are in relation to your use of the Travel Services.

To the extent that any third-party beneficiary to these Terms brings claims against the entities covered by these Terms; those claims shall also be subject to this Arbitration Agreement.

The arbitrator shall also be responsible for determining all threshold arbitrability issues, including without limitation the existence, scope, or validity of the Arbitration Agreement, any defense to arbitration such as issues relating to whether this Arbitration Agreement can be enforced, is unconscionable or illusory, and any defenses to arbitration, including without limitation jurisdiction, waiver, delay, laches, or estoppel.

Small claims court matters

Notwithstanding the foregoing arbitration provisions, either you or we may bring, or remove, any claim in small claims court if the claim is within such court’s jurisdictional limit; provided that such court does not have the authority to entertain any claims on a class or representative basis, or to consolidate or join the claims of other persons or parties who may be similarly situated in such proceeding.

Further, if the claims asserted in any demand for arbitration are within the small claims court’s jurisdictional limit, then either you or we may elect to have the claims heard in small claims court, rather than in arbitration, at any time before the arbitrator is appointed, or in accord with the AAA rules, by notifying the other party of that election in writing.

No class actions or representative proceedings

You and we agree that any and all proceedings to resolve Claims will be conducted only on an individual basis and not in a class, consolidated, or representative action, including without limitation as a private attorney general.

The arbitrator may not consolidate more than one party’s Claims and may not otherwise preside over any form of any class or representative proceeding.

You and we further acknowledge that you are waiving your right to a jury trial.

Arbitration rules and governing law

This Arbitration Agreement is a “written agreement to arbitrate” evidencing a transaction in interstate commerce.

The Federal Arbitration Act (“FAA”) governs all substantive and procedural interpretation and enforcement of this provision.

The arbitration will be administered by AAA in accordance with the AAA’s Consumer Arbitration Rules or other AAA arbitration rules determined to be applicable by the AAA (the “AAA Rules”) then in effect, except as modified here.

The AAA Rules are available at www.adr.org.

The arbitrator shall apply the law of the state of Washington, regardless of conflict of laws principles, except for claims arising in the state of California in which event, the arbitrator shall apply the law of California. The FAA governs all provisions relating to arbitration.

Foreign laws do not apply.

This Arbitration Agreement can only be amended by mutual agreement in writing.

Mandatory pre-arbitration dispute resolution and notification

Prior to initiating arbitration, you agree to give us the opportunity to resolve any Claims by notifying us of the Claim in writing and attempting in good faith to negotiate an informal resolution.

You must send, by certified mail, a written and signed Notice of Dispute (“Notice”) addressed to:

Legal Department/Dispute Resolution Provision, Expedia, Inc., 1111 Expedia Group Way West, Seattle, WA, 98119.

The Notice must contain the following information: (1) your name, (2) your address, (3) the email address you used to make your reservation, (4) a brief description of the nature of your complaint, (5) the resolution that you are seeking, and (6) your signature.

If we are not able to resolve your complaint within 60 days of you providing Notice, you may commence an arbitration proceeding.

Engaging in this pre-arbitration dispute resolution and notification process is a requirement that must be fulfilled before commencing arbitration. AAA does not have authority to administer or adjudicate the Claim unless and until all Pre-Arbitration Dispute Resolution and Notification requirements have been met.

The statute of limitations shall be tolled while the parties engage in the dispute resolution process required by this Section.

Commencing arbitration

To initiate arbitration, you must file the Demand with the AAA as specified in the AAA Rules.

The AAA provides a form Demand for Arbitration - Consumer Arbitration Rules at www.adr.org or by calling the AAA at 1-800-778-7879.

A party initiating an arbitration against us must send the written Demand for Arbitration to Legal Department/Dispute Resolution Provision, Expedia, Inc., 1111 Expedia Group Way West, Seattle, WA, 98119 concurrent with filing the Demand with AAA.

Arbitration shall be conducted by a single arbitrator selected in accordance with the AAA Rules or by mutual agreement between you and us.

The Arbitration shall be held either: (i) at a location determined by AAA pursuant to the AAA Rules (provided that such location is reasonably convenient for you and does not require travel in excess of 100 miles from your home or place of business); or (ii) at such other location as may be mutually agreed upon by you and us; or (iii) via videoconference; or (iv) at your election, if the only claims in the arbitration are asserted by you and are for less than $40,000 in aggregate, by telephone or by written submission.

Attorneys' fees and costs

Your arbitration fees and your share of arbitrator compensation shall be governed by the AAA Rules, and where appropriate, limited by the AAA Consumer Rules.

In order to initiate arbitration, each party will be responsible for paying the filing fees required by the AAA, which are approximately equivalent to current court filing fees.

In the event that you are able to demonstrate that the costs of arbitration will be prohibitive as compared to the costs of litigation, or you would otherwise be eligible for a fee waiver in court, we will pay as much of your filing and hearing fees in connection with the arbitration as the arbitrator deems necessary to prevent the arbitration from being cost-prohibitive as compared to the costs of litigation, regardless of the outcome of the arbitration, unless the arbitrator determines that your claim(s) were frivolous or asserted in bad faith.

Either party may make a request that the arbitrator award attorneys' fees and costs upon proving that the other party has asserted a claim, cross-claim, or defense that is groundless in fact or law, brought in bad faith or for the purpose of harassment, or is otherwise frivolous, as allowed by applicable law and the AAA Rules.

Arbitrator's decision

There is no judge or jury in arbitration, and court review of an arbitration award is limited under the FAA.

The arbitrator's decision will include the essential findings and conclusions on which the arbitrator bases the award.

Judgment on the arbitration award may be entered in any court with proper jurisdiction.

The arbitrator may award any relief allowed by law or the AAA Rules, but declaratory or injunctive relief may be awarded only on an individual basis and only to the extent necessary to provide relief warranted by the claimant's individual claim.

Severability and survival

If any portion of this Disputes and Arbitration Provision is found to be unenforceable or unlawful for any reason, (1) such portion will be severed and the remainder of the Provision will be given full force and effect; and (2) to the extent that any Claims must therefore proceed on a class, collective, consolidated, or representative basis, such Claims must be litigated in a civil court of competent jurisdiction and not in arbitration, and the parties agree that litigation of those claims shall be stayed pending the outcome of any individual Claims in arbitration.
